FOREWORD

In this age of high speeds and modern wonders, almost everyone is going places and doing things. High school is no exception. Students are constantly on the go from completing a research paper or history project to attend club meetings, sports events, dances, or music festivals. For most students the three-thirty bell does not signify the end of a school day but only a shift in activity.

Our motto has become facta non verba — deeds not words. In view of this we have chosen action as our theme. Action — in the classroom, in club projects, on the football field or basketball court — everywhere. These may be different types of action, but everything about us is constantly in motion. Action is our password.

DEDICATION

The Class of 1958 is proud to dedicate this annual to Mr. G. V. Cohrs. Mr. Cohrs came to Grand Haven in 1922 as a physical education instructor and coach. He has coached football, basketball, baseball, and track in addition to handling the intramural program. Over the years his basketball teams captured one Class "A" and six Class "B" state championships. Although Mr. Cohrs retired from the coaching picture in 1945, he is and always will be remembered for his great basketball record, a record that no other coach in the state has ever come close to matching.

As a teacher of civics and economics, Mr. Cohrs has helped many students. This June he will complete thirty-six years of teaching in our Grand Haven School System. We know that he will be missed by Grand Haven's students in the future.

Mr. G. V. Cohrs

Miss Hattie E. Young

This June after thirty-four years on the Grand Haven faculty, Miss Hattie Young is leaving us. In appreciation of the assistance she has given to countless students, we dedicate this annual to Miss Young. Since coming to Grand Haven in 1924, Miss Young has taught English, Latin, and Spanish. In 1932 she became dean of girls, a position in which she has been able to help many, many students with all types of problems. In the community as well as the school, Miss Young has been very generous in giving her time to help others. We are all indeed sorry to have Miss Young leave us.
